

Media statement

54/2013 – 16 December 2013

Delays at Melbourne Airport

Passengers are advised to expect delays to flights arriving and departing Melbourne this morning due to technical issues at our control tower at Melbourne Airport.

As a safety precaution all traffic into and out of Melbourne has been slowed down.

Flow on delays to the national air traffic network are expected.

We thank the travelling public for the patience as we work to resolve the technical issues as soon as possible.

Passengers are advised to check with their airline for further information.

Contact:

Corporate Communication

Phone: 02 6257 2828